due to an altercation between a WC police officer and a male subject. We then proceeded back to the main road. Once out of the ambulance, I went over to PO Hess who was in care of Gail Wind. Knowing he had medical attention I then went to another patient. That pt was a male, black who had been shot in the upper left arm. His left arm had been bandaged by PO Ron Gagnon. I was able to peek under the bandage without compromising the wound and saw there was no blood loss at that time. He had no other complaints and remained in the police vehicle. Once out of the car, he was collared/boarded and placed on the stretcher. At this point in time, my crew was Jon Kadela, Greg Wind who transported this pt along with a paramedic from Greenburgh. PO Gagnon also came in the ambulance. The pt Brandon Cox, a 30-year old from Massachusetts had no other complaints other than his arm. He was handcuffed to the stretcher. While waiting for 7602 to park and ~~the~~^{as} as well as getting our pt immobilized, a fight broke out across the parking lot. As this time ~~you~~^{the} police went running to the fight. Behind the gray car was a blue car with 2 girls crying in the car. They were on the phone screaming, "he got shot." At the hospital, more information was obtained from other crew members. One being that the driver of the vehicle had in fact been shot, it was at that time he had been pronounced dead. Before leaving the hospital I checked on PO Hess, who was complaining of knee pain. we (7602) called back into service and asked if we were needed back at the scene. The reply was "negative at that time" but a few minutes later we were requested back at the scene for a shoulder injury. Upon arrival at the scene for the 2nd time the pt was also in the back of a police car. This pt's name was Joe. Joe seemed to be intoxicated and said, "the fing cops killed by fing friend." At this point I told him to not curse at me, and I asked what was wrong. He said his shoulder got hurt by the "fing police" but that it had also been hurt during

The football game that day. He was already wearing a sling. PO's Kevin Gilmartin and Juan Garcia (PPD) and Lt. Love (PPD) were witness to this pt. He then said he had no insurance and was asking who would pay. He then carried on about going and said he refused transport. He did not want to sign the PCR. At this time Lt. Fanelli (MPPD) signed as a witness to his RMA. We were then called over by WCPD to remove tazer probes from another individual. I told the officer I could not do that and a medic needed to be called. Beth Sanger then showed up and said she could not do it either.

At this time approximately ^(A) 3:00am, calls were coming in about people outside of Westchester Medical Center. PO Nethercott (w/crd) took the subject with the probes in his police vehicle for treatment. After that, I then cleaned up a minor laceration on another pt. (male black from Florida.) I applied a bandage, he refused medical aid or transport after taking care of the minor laceration to his eyebrow. Finally, everyone who needed treatment was seen. Lt. Fanelli released us from the scene at approximately 3:10 am.
